SOUTHEASTERN ALASKA AREA

Special Provisions:

NO FEDERAL SUBSISTENCE PERMIT REQUIRED. You may take fish, other than rainbow trout and steelhead trout, at any time, unless otherwise restricted below or by permit.

You must possess a subsistence fishing permit to take salmon, trout, or char. You must immediately remove the pelvic fins of all salmon when taken.

You may take herring at any time, except as noted above.

REGULATIONS:

Permits will not be issued to take chinook or coho salmon for subsistence uses. If you take chinook or coho salmon incidentally with gear operated under terms of a subsistence permit for other salmon, they may be kept for subsistence purposes. You must report any chinook or coho salmon taken in this manner on your permit calendar.

From July 7 through July 31, you may only take sockeye salmon in the waters of the Klawock River, and Klawock Lake from 8:00 a.m. Monday until 5:00 p.m. Friday. No permits for the use of nets will be issued for the salmon streams flowing across or adjacent to the road systems of Petersburg, Wrangell, and Sitka

You may not possess subsistence-taken and sport-taken salmon on the same day.

If you take salmon, trout, or char incidentally with gear operated under terms of a subsistence permit for other salmon, they may be kept for subsistence purposes. You must report any salmon, trout, or char taken in this manner on your permit calendar.

You may take herring, except during the 72 hours before and 72 hours after an open commercial herring fishing period. Any vessel, crew member, or permit holder who participates in the commercial herring fishery opening may not take (or possess) herring in any district in the Southeastern Alaska Area.
